2. Officers' billets, including family quarters, in all barracks of the Schwerin military post, were being remodeled because all married officers and their families were to live in barracks after 15 May 1950. Barracks-type billets on streets blocked by barriers guarded by Soviets are considered houses. Houses on Ziegelsee, Hasenholm, Lischstrasse and a section of Jartenstadt are in this category. (2)
3. Commanding General Zavich and Corps General Romastsov had their offices in the former Generalkommando (German corps headquarters building) on Lischstrasse. Corps General Romastsov is said to be preparing to leave his private billet on Ziegelsee to move to Lischstrasse. (3)
4. Colonel Skurski was replaced as Chief of the Hagenow Border Guard Hq, [REDACTED] by Lieutenant Colonel Shentsov. Present whereabouts of Colonel Skurski are not known. (4)
